DRAFT B

8 Dear Ms. Rodriguez-Baz:

9           We are responding to your advisory opinion request on behalf of Ready for Ron 10 (“R4R”) concerning the application of the Federal Election Campaign Act, 52 U.S.C.
11 §§ 30101-45 (the “Act”), and Commission regulations to R4R’s proposal to provide to 12 Governor Ron DeSantis without charge a petition containing the names and contact 13 information of thousands of individuals who wish to encourage him to run for President 14 in the 2024 election. The Commission concludes that R4R may provide the names and 15 compiled contact information included in its petition to Governor DeSantis before he 16 begins testing the waters for a potential federal candidacy because neither the Act nor 17 Commission regulations prohibit that activity. However, R4R may not provide the names 18 and contact information to Governor DeSantis after he either becomes a federal candidate 19 or begins testing the waters for a potential federal candidacy because the value of that 20 information would exceed applicable contribution limits and limits on funds used to test 21 the waters. The proposal to provide the contact information to Governor DeSantis after 22 he becomes a federal candidate or begins testing the waters is also contrary to restrictions 23 on the use of funds in the non-contribution accounts of political committees with both 24 contribution and non-contribution accounts (“hybrid PACs”).

1 Background

2 The facts presented in this advisory opinion are based on your letter dated May 3 25, 2022, your email dated June 17, 2022, disclosure reports filed with the Commission, 4 and publicly available information.

5 On May 23, 2022, R4R registered with the Commission as a hybrid, 6 nonconnected, unauthorized political committee.<sup>1</sup> It describes itself as a “draft” 7 committee “that seeks to encourage Florida Governor Ron DeSantis . . . to declare his 8 candidacy for the 2024 Republican nomination for President.”<sup>2</sup> Governor DeSantis is 9 currently a candidate for re-election to state office and is not a party to this request.<sup>3</sup>

10 R4R states that it accepts contributions subject to the Act’s source prohibitions 11 and contribution limits to its contribution account and “solicits and accepts unlimited 12 contributions” from individuals other than prohibited sources to its non-contribution 13 account.<sup>4</sup> R4R does not plan to seek or qualify for multicandidate political committee 14 status.

15 R4R proposes to use funds from both its contribution and non-contribution 16 accounts to fund a nationwide petition drive to encourage Governor DeSantis to run for

1 President in 2024.<sup>5</sup> Individuals supporting a potential DeSantis presidential campaign
2 may “sign” the petition through R4R’s website or by phone. R4R requires all petition 3 signatories to provide their names, phone numbers, email addresses, and zip codes; any 4 individual not wishing to provide this information cannot sign the petition. R4R will 5 notify individuals that, by signing the petition, they agree to have their names and contact 6 information provided to Governor DeSantis. R4R proposes to provide this information to 7 Government DeSantis without charge.

8 R4R plans extensive media outreach to support its petition. R4R represents that, 9 as of June 12, 2022, it has aired approximately 86 television advertisements promoting 10 the petition, including on Fox News and other channels; run online advertisements with a 11 total of 318,779 impressions; and received over one million views of its advertisements 12 through social media. In addition, R4R states that its petition has received news coverage
13 by Fox News, Politico, the Associated Press, MarketWatch, and the Boston Herald. R4R 14 plans to continue to promote the petition through television and online advertisements, as 15 well as “through radio, podcast, Skywriting, direct mail, billboards, blimps, and other 16 media,” and estimates that it will spend an average of $25,000-$50,000 per week on 17 advertisements in support of the petition through 2024.<sup>6</sup>

18 As a result of these efforts, R4R expects to receive contact information from more 19 than 58,000 petition signatories during the pendency of this advisory opinion and <sup>5</sup> AOR003. R4R’s petition drive became active on May 23, 2022. AOR019. R4R explains that the purpose of its petition is “to demonstrate the breadth of public support for [Governor DeSantis] and attempt to persuade him to become, and subsequently to remain, a candidate for the Republican nomination for President in the 2024 election.” AOR004.

1 “projects it will likely amass well over a million virtual signatures for its petition, along 2 with accompanying [contact information], by the end of 2022.”<sup>7</sup> R4R states that its 3 petition will likely eventually include the contact information of “millions” of petition 4 signers.<sup>8</sup> After initially submitting its petition to Governor DeSantis, R4R proposes to 5 submit “regular updates” to him through the 2024 election, “accompanied by the names 6 and [contact information] of people who have joined the petition since it was last 7 updated.”<sup>9</sup> R4R estimates the value of each signatory’s contact information to be five 8 cents, based on a “reasonable sample market value of contact information in political 9 distribution lists,” and states that the market value of the information it plans to provide 10 to Governor DeSantis will exceed $2900.<sup>10</sup>

11 R4R represents that neither it “nor its agents are coordinating with Governor Ron 12 DeSantis, his gubernatorial campaign, or any federal or state political committees 13 authorized by Governor DeSantis.”<sup>11</sup> R4R states that if it uses any common vendors with 14 Governor DeSantis, it “will require firewalls.”<sup>12</sup> Finally, R4R asserts that, “to the best of

13 Legal Analysis

14 R4R may provide the list of over 58,000 signatories’ names and compiled contact 15 information from its petition to Governor DeSantis before he begins testing the waters for 16 a federal candidacy because neither the Act nor Commission regulations prohibit that 17 activity. However, R4R may not provide Governor DeSantis with the list of names and 18 compiled contact information from its petition after Governor DeSantis either becomes a 19 federal candidate or begins testing the waters for a federal candidacy. Providing the list 20 to Governor DeSantis after he becomes a federal candidate (should he do so) would 21 exceed the Act’s contribution limits, and providing the list to Governor DeSantis after he

1 begins testing the waters for a federal candidacy would be contrary to the Commission’s 2 regulation at 11 C.F.R. § 100.72(a). R4R’s proposal to provide the compiled contact
3 information to Governor DeSantis either after he becomes a federal candidate or begins 4 testing the waters is also contrary to restrictions on the non-contribution accounts of 5 hybrid PACs.

6 1. The compiled contact information in R4R’s petition is a thing of value.

7 The Act prohibits a political committee, other than a multicandidate political 8 committee, from contributing more than $2900 to any candidate with respect to any 9 election for federal office.<sup>14</sup> A contribution includes “any gift, subscription, loan, 10 advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of 11 influencing any election for Federal office.”<sup>15</sup> “[T]he provision of any goods or services 12 without charge or at a charge that is less than the usual and normal charge” is an “in-13 kind” contribution.<sup>16</sup> The value or “amount of the in-kind contribution is the difference 14 between the usual and normal charge for the goods or services at the time of the 15 contribution and the amount charged the political committee.”<sup>17</sup>

16 As “the product of time-consuming, labor-intensive activities that can cost a 17 political committee thousands, even millions, of dollars” to compile, a political

1 committee’s list of persons sympathetic to its cause is among “its most valuable assets.”<sup>18</sup> 2 Accordingly, the Commission has “long recognized” that political committee mailing and 3 email lists have commercial value and are “frequently sold, rented, or exchanged in a 4 market.”<sup>19</sup> Indeed, rather than spending the time and money to start its petition drive 5 completely from scratch, R4R itself states that it “will rent access to distribution lists 6 from commercial vendors to send e-mails and text messages to potential DeSantis 7 supporters” and that it has already paid more the $2900 for a contact list of persons who 8 it believes are likely sympathetic to its cause.<sup>20</sup>

9 The Commission’s regulation specifically identifies “membership lists” and 10 “mailing lists” as examples of goods that are in-kind contributions when provided to a 11 candidate or political committee without charge or at less than their usual and normal 12 charge.<sup>21</sup> And the Commission has long recognized this principle in its advisory opinions 13 as well. For example, in Advisory Opinion 1979-18 (FEC’s Former Employees 14 Committee), the Commission found that a political committee would make an in-kind 15 contribution to a candidate if it provided its contributor list to the candidate at less than

3       2.       R4R’s proposal to provide the signatories’ contact information to 4       Governor DeSantis without charge after Governor DeSantis becomes a federal 5       candidate would result in an excessive contribution.

6       The Act prohibits a political committee, other than a multicandidate political 7 committee, from contributing more than $2900 to any candidate with respect to any 8 election for federal office.<sup>22</sup> R4R is not a multicandidate political committee, and so it is 9 subject to the $2900 limit.

10       R4R states that it expects its petition will include the contact information of more 11 than 58,000 petition signatories during the pendency of this advisory opinion request and 12 “likely” more than one million by the end of 2022.<sup>23</sup> R4R estimates that the market value 13 of the list of signatories’ contact information will exceed $2900.<sup>24</sup> Accordingly, 14 providing Governor DeSantis with the contact information in the petition without charge 15 after he becomes a candidate for federal office would constitute an in-kind contribution in 16 excess of contribution limits and thus is prohibited.

17       R4R states that the Commission should not treat the compiled contact information 18 from the petition as a contribution by R4R because the value of the individual contact <sup>24</sup> AOR004, 5; see also AOR020 (stating “[t]he market value of the list of signatories (which contains [contact information]) who wish to associate with Governor DeSantis and support him running for President in 2024 that Ready for Ron wishes to provide to Governor DeSantis will exceed federal contribution limits”).

1 information provided by each petition signatory should be considered a de minimis 2 contribution by that individual to Governor DeSantis with R4R acting as a conduit.<sup>25</sup> As 3 discussed above, it is well established under the Commission’s regulation that “mailing 4 lists” or “membership lists” compiled by political committees are an in-kind contribution 5 under the Act if provided at less than the “usual and normal charge.” As the D.C. District 6 Court recognized in FEC v. Christian Coalition, “[e]ven if the names on the . . . list were 7 publicly available, the fact that the [respondent] expended resources to compile the list” 8 of persons likely to support a candidate “created value that was passed on” when that list 9 was provided to the candidate.<sup>26</sup> R4R states it intends to spend a significant amount of 10 money to compile the list of contact information in its petition — an estimated $25,000-11 $50,000 per week over a period of more than two years, with more than $2900 already 12 spent to acquire a mailing list in support of its efforts — and asserts that the resultant list
13 will have a commercial value in excess of $2900.<sup>27</sup> The contact information in R4R’s 14 petition would be of significant value to Governor DeSantis not only because of its 15 expensive development costs, but also because it exclusively includes persons who are 16 advocating in favor of Governor DeSantis running for President. Accordingly, R4R may 17 not provide the contact information to Governor DeSantis without charge if and when he 18 becomes a federal candidate because the value of the information would exceed the 19 contribution limits.

1           3.       R4R's proposal to provide the signatories' contact information to 2           Governor DeSantis after he begins testing the waters for a federal candidacy is 3           contrary to the Commission's regulation at 11 C.F.R. § 100.72(a).

4           The Commission's "testing the waters" regulation at 11 C.F.R. § 100.72(a) 5 provides that "[f]unds received solely for the purpose of determining whether an 6 individual should become a candidate are not contributions"; however, "[i]f the 7 individual subsequently becomes a candidate, the funds received are contributions subject 8 to the reporting requirements of the Act."<sup>28</sup> "Only funds permissible under the Act may 9 be used for [testing the waters] activities."<sup>29</sup> The Commission long ago determined that 10 "funds received" for purposes of the testing the waters regulation "include in-kind gifts of 11 anything of value."<sup>30</sup> Thus, "funds received from any committee, whether in-kind or 12 direct, for an individual's testing-the-waters activities are aggregated with any 13 contributions from the same committee to such individual as a candidate (or to his or her 14 authorized committees)."<sup>31</sup>

15           "Through its regulations, the Commission, in essence, has excepted 'testing the 16 waters' activity from the reporting rules that would otherwise apply."<sup>32</sup> The Commission 17 promulgated the "limited exceptions" in the testing the waters regulations from the 18 requirements to report contributions and expenditures in order "to permit individuals to 2 office, without making their activities immediately public.”<sup>33</sup>

3 Prior to March 1985, the Commission’s regulations permitted a candidate to 4 refund any excessive or prohibited contributions received during the “testing the waters” 5 period within 10 days after the individual became a candidate.<sup>34</sup> However, the 6 Commission “reconsidered this issue and determined that permitting prohibited funds to 7 be used for ‘testing the waters’ activities extended the exemptions beyond the narrow 8 range of activities they were originally intended to encompass.”<sup>35</sup> Accordingly, the 9 Commission revised the regulations to require that funds received to test the waters must 10 be permissible under the Act’s source prohibitions and contribution limits.<sup>36</sup> The 11 Commission rejected comments objecting to the proposed regulatory revision, explaining 12 that it “view[ed] the amended regulations as reducing the potential for circumvention of 13 the prohibitions and limitations of the Act,” and “ensur[ing] consistent application of the 14 Act’s contribution limitations and prohibitions.”<sup>37</sup> As a result, “[o]nly funds permissible 15 under the Act may be used for [testing the waters] activities.”<sup>38</sup>

1           Accordingly, if R4R provides its petition with names and compiled contact 2 information to Governor DeSantis after he begins testing the waters for a potential federal 3 candidacy, the petition and contact information must comply with the amount limitations
4 and source prohibitions of the Act. Because their value would exceed the applicable 5 amount limitation, R4R would not be able to provide them to Governor DeSantis without 6 charge.<sup>39</sup>

7           R4R offers several arguments as to why the Commission should not apply the 8 testing the waters regulation at 11 C.F.R. § 100.72(a) or the Act's contribution limits to 9 its proposal. The Commission has considered these arguments and does not find them to 10 be persuasive for the following reasons. First, the Commission has previously concluded 11 that political committee mailing and membership lists have value and that the provision 12 of such lists to a candidate or political committee at no charge or at less than the usual 13 and normal charge is a contribution.<sup>40</sup> The requestor has not provided any information 14 that would materially distinguish the information it proposes to provide to Governor 15 DeSantis from that previously considered by the Commission. Second, the testing the 16 waters regulation was duly promulgated by the Commission after notice and comment 17 rulemaking and has not been struck down by any court. Accordingly, the Commission

<sup>39</sup> The provided information would also become an in-kind contribution and subject to the Act's reporting requirements if Governor DeSantis subsequently becomes a candidate. 11 C.F.R. § 100.72(a).

1 has a legal obligation to apply the regulation to R4R’s proposal.<sup>41</sup> Finally, under its 2 proposal, R4R would be more than a mere conduit of other people’s information. As 3 discussed above, the “thing of value” that R4R proposes to provide to Governor DeSantis 4 does not consist solely, or even primarily, of any individual signatory’s name or contact 5 information. Instead, it lies in R4R’s collection and compilation of information from tens 6 of thousands, if not “millions,” of individuals nationwide who would have already 7 demonstrated their support for Governor DeSantis and his potential presidential campaign 8 by participating in R4R’s petition project — a project on which R4R plans to expend 9 considerable resources of its own.<sup>42</sup> This regularly updated repository of names and 10 contact information of current supporters and potential future contributors and volunteers 11 would be particularly valuable to Governor DeSantis if he decides to run for federal 12 office.

13 4. R4R’s proposal to provide the compiled contact information from its 15 begins testing the waters is inconsistent with restrictions on a hybrid PAC’s use of 17 R4R’s proposal to fund its petition activities, in part, from its non-contribution

5 not “receive . . . or spend funds in connection with an election for Federal office . . .

7 [the] Act.”<sup>45</sup> In addition, all funds received or spent for testing the waters purposes are 8 subject to the amount limitations and source prohibitions of the Act.<sup>46</sup> As a result, a 9 hybrid PAC may make neither in-kind contributions nor testing the waters donations 10 from its non-contribution account.

11 Here, R4R “solicits and accepts unlimited contributions” to its non-contribution

1 testing the waters for a potential federal candidacy, R4R may not pay for the proposed 2 activity using funds from its non-contribution account.

3 5. R4R may provide the names and compiled contact information in its 4 petition to Governor DeSantis before he begins testing the waters for a potential 5 federal candidacy because neither the Act nor Commission regulations prohibit 6 that activity.

7 The Act establishes amount limitations on contributions by political committees 8 to federal candidates.<sup>48</sup> Similarly, the Commission’s “testing the waters” regulation at 9 11 C.F.R. § 100.72(a) provides that “[o]nly funds permissible under the Act may be used 10 for [testing the waters] activities.”

11 Neither the Act nor Commission regulations, however, govern donations of things 12 of value to individuals who are neither federal candidates nor testing the waters for 13 federal office,<sup>49</sup> except in limited circumstances not relevant to R4R’s request.<sup>50</sup> 14 Whether an individual is a candidate or is testing the waters for federal candidacy is 15 based on that individual’s own conduct.<sup>51</sup> Accordingly, nothing in the Act or 16 Commission regulations prohibits R4R from providing the names and compiled contact

<sup>51</sup> See 52 U.S.C. § 30101(2) (defining “candidate” as “an individual who seeks nomination for election, or election, to Federal office”); 11 C.F.R. 100.72(b) (distinguishing between candidacy and testing the waters activity based on whether individual has undertaken “activities indicating that [the] individual has decided to become a candidate for a particular office or for activities relevant to conducting a campaign”).

1 information from its petition to Governor DeSantis when Governor DeSantis is neither a 2 federal candidate nor testing the waters.

3 R4R states that Governor DeSantis has not “begun testing the waters” for a 4 potential federal candidacy.<sup>52</sup> However, R4R also acknowledges that it “lacks any 5 knowledge, insight, or control” over Governor DeSantis’s “independent decisions.”<sup>53</sup> As 6 the Commission has explained, a key purpose of the testing the waters regulations is “to 7 permit individuals to conduct certain activities while deciding whether to become a 8 candidate for Federal office, without making their activities immediately public.”<sup>54</sup> 9 Governor DeSantis is not a party to this request, and the Commission expresses no view 10 on whether he may be engaged in activity that would constitute testing the waters for a 11 potential federal candidacy. The Commission further expresses no opinion regarding the 12 application of any state laws to R4R’s proposal because those laws are not within the 13 Commission’s jurisdiction.
